

1 Spring Street and 21-25 Flinders Lane, Melbourne Advisory Committee Member Biographies – June 2022

Surname	First Name	Biography
Chair
Raso	Sarah	Sarah was appointed a Senior Panel Member in December 2021. She holds a Bachelor of Law and Arts, and has previously been a privately practicing lawyer. Sarah has over 14 years' experience in complex planning and environmental law associated with property development, planning scheme amendments and environment effects inquiries. Sarah has extensive expertise in the retail and residential space, statutory and strategic planning, built form and heritage, renewable energy, land management issues and land use classification.
Member
Hutson	Andrew	Andrew became a registered architect in 1981 and after years of practice with architectural firms of various scales commenced his own practice in 1985 working on a range of project types and scales including single and multi-unit housing. In 1991, he became an academic in the Faculty of Architecture Building and Planning at the University of Melbourne, retiring as Deputy Dean and Associate Professor in 2021. Andrew was Chair of the ARBV for 12 years and President of the AACA for 6 years and led a number of committees that amended the Competency Standards for Architects and the Accreditation procedures for Australian and New Zealand schools of architecture. Andrew has provided Expert Witness at VCAT, focusing on architecture, good design and urban design. He has a comprehensive understanding of the Planning and Environment Act and a broad understanding of the interpretation of planning policies beyond the specific expertise.
Hubbard	Timothy	Timothy is a retired architect and planner. He completed his PhD on the Italianate villa in the colonial landscape in 2004. He was awarded the inaugural ISSI Leslie M. Perrott Travelling Fellowship in 2006 to study historic roads in the US, UK and Europe. Before establishing his own practice in 1988, Timothy worked with the Department of Planning and the Historic Buildings Council. He has been heritage advisor to many municipalities, both metropolitan and rural. Timothy has been a member of the Heritage Council, the Victorian Chapter Council of the Institute of Architects and the Australia ICOMOS Executive Committee. He continues as a member of the ICOMOS International Committee on Cultural Routes and is a sessional member of Planning Panels Victoria
Hansen	Roz	Roz is an urban and regional planner of more than 40 years' experience. Roz has worked on a wide range of projects including local and metropolitan planning strategies, medium and large scale development projects and as an expert planning witness on development applications at VCAT. Roz chaired the Victorian Historic Buildings Council from 1988 to 1994 and is currently a member of the ACT Heritage Council. Roz is a Life Fellow of the Planning Institute of Australia and a Professorial Fellow at the Faculty of Architecture, Building and Planning at the University of Melbourne. In January 2022 Roz became a Member of the Order of Australia (AM) for her significant service to urban planning, architecture and to professional, educational and heritage conservation organisations.